Retention periods

This policy defines how long Halden Freight keeps records. Customer records are retained for 5 years after the end of the contract. Invoices and accounting records are retained for 10 years. Application documents of rejected applicants are deleted after 6 months. Personnel files are retained for 3 years after an employee leaves.

Backups and deletion

File servers are backed up weekly, and backups are stored in a second data centre. Backups are kept for 90 days. Data is deleted using certified erasure software. Deletion requests from customers are answered within 30 days. The Data Protection Officer reviews this policy once per year.
